JUDGE TURNER ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION

In the proper place will be found the official announcement of Judge Ben R. Turner for re-election as Police Judge of the City of Mt. Sterling, subject to the action of the Democratic voters at the primary, August 6th. During Judge Turner's incumbency in office he has made an enviable reputation on the bench and he is making the present race on his past record. A gentleman by breeding and instinct, he is well qualified and deserving of the position which he seeks. We ask for his claims careful consideration by his fellow-Democrats at the polls in August.

In Congressman Cantrill's address to the tobacco growers, warehousemen and bankers at Lexington, numbering about 2,500, Mr. Cantrill suggests nothing new, but emphasizes the course as mapped out by others with the same hopeful vision that better prices may prevail by dividing the sales in two parts and cutting out the 1921 crop entirely. As we see it, to prevent recurrences of continuous low prices a firm and compact growers' organization for the manufacturing of the weed is the only alternative, as the sooner such an organization is effected the better for growers now, and their successors as well as all lines of business.

MT. STERLING HAS ANOTHER CHANCE

The following article from the West Liberty Courier should awaken our people to action on the road situation. The people of Morgan and other Eastern Kentucky counties like to trade in Mt. Sterling and if our people will assist in making this market accessible we are certain to regain much of our lost prestige:

The Mt. Sterling Advocate is hitting the keynote. Years ago the bulk of the trade from Morgan went to Mt. Sterling, but the building of the old L. & N. railroad gave us an outlet by rail, and Mt. Sterling lost the greater part of our trade. The building of a hard surfaced road would bring her into a position to regain much of her trade. There is another chance for Mt. Sterling to sleep away her opportunity. If a good road is built to Morehead before the one to Mt. Sterling, it will hurt that place, for it will put us 30 miles nearer by good road to a trunk line. It is vital to both.

"What Have We Accomplished Today?"

(Nixon Waterman)

We shall do so much in the years to come,
But what have we done today?
We shall give our gold in a princely sum,
But what did we give today?
We shall lift the heart and dry the tear,
We shall plant a hope in the place of fear,
We shall speak the words of love and cheer,
But what did we speak today?

We shall be so kind in the after-while,
But what have we been today?
We shall bring to each lonely life a smile,
But what have we brought today?
We shall give to truth a grander birth,
And to steadfast faith a deeper worth;
We shall feed the hungering souls of earth,
But whom have we fed today?

We shall reap such joys in the by and by,
But what have we sown today?
We shall build our mansions in the sky,
But what have we built today?
'Tis sweet in idle dreams to bask,
But here and now do we do our task?
Yes, this is the thing our souls must ask:
"What have we done today?"

READ WHAT THE PRESIDENT OF ONE OF MT. STERLING'S BANKS HAS TO SAY REGARDING LIFE INSURANCE IN CONNECTION WITH LOANS

"Being a firm believer in Life Insurance (carrying a goodly sum myself) and having given considerable thought to its bearings and relations to credits of firms and individuals carrying same, I am of the opinion that, as a rule, this SHOULD ADD GREATLY TO THE CREDIT OF THOSE CARRYING SUCH PROTECTION.

"I am so much of this belief, and have seen, so often, the many advantages of same that, as President of the Bank and a member of its board, I would LOOK WITH FAVOR ON INCREASING THE LINE OF CREDIT, TO THE POINT OF, SAY, 50 PER CENT OF WHATEVER AMOUNT SUCH FIRMS OR INDIVIDUALS MAY CARRY."

Can YOU, then, expect to receive 100 per cent attention to YOUR request for a loan at the bank if you have to answer "None" when you are asked "What Life Insurance Do You Carry?"

There are policies especially adapted to loans, mortgages, Etc.

"Devil Anse" Hatfield Dead

"Devil Anse" Hatfield, noted leader of the Hatfield-McCoy feud of thirty years ago, is dead. Word of his death Thursday night in the Hatfield home at Island Creek, Logan county, W. Va., was received Friday. Pneumonia caused his death.

Anderson ("Devil Anse") Hatfield was one of the leaders of the historic feud between the Hatfield and McCoy families in the mountains of Northern Kentucky. Shot at from ambush and in hand-to-hand combat scores of times with the McCoy's, he had always predicted he would live to die a natural death.

Cheerfulness Requires Much Courage

It takes a good deal of courage to seem cheerful in wartime, yet it is a detail of one's self-respect to keep a smiling face in public. A display of hysteria indicates considerable indifference to the rights and comfort of others, and is not good form. No matter how hard life may be, one must keep from scolding and scowling and complaining and whining and indulge in tears and grief only in one's own room.—Chicago Evening Post.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hovermale are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a six-pound girl at their home near Judy on January 3rd. The little girl has been named Gladys.
